I think CHATFIELD will be the Leader, although the age and standing of Perkins, of St. Lawrence, will give it to him if he wants it. From what I swat the Leco-Foco Caucus, I thought Mr. Perkins and the standard of the sta fixs was to be a second VAN VALKENBURGH, who was to be a second VAN VALKENBURGH, who was without exception the most intolerable bore ever inflicted on any Legislature. But I believe I was utterly mistaken. He promises to be a useful, hard-working, industrious member, and will work bonestly for his constituents and the State.

I do not like the composition of the Military Committee. I suppose Colonel Crain felt himself bound to protect the dignity of the cloth, or rather of the chapeau. We have another grist of Militia Colonels, and Generals and Majors! Time only will chapean. We have another grist of Militia Colo-bels, and Generals, and Majors! Time only will show whether they will tread in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessors. UDELL, of Suffolk the Chairman, says he goes for ripping up the pre-taining of enforcing it by heavy fines. I hope the Charman, says he goes for ripping up the pre-sent system, or enforcing it by heavy fines. I hope be will not go the latter alternative. You will see by the proceedings to day, that in both Houses propo-stions have been brought forward to memorialize stions have been brought forward to memorialize Congress on the subject. Pshaw! a mere pretext to ged rid of an out and-out vote on cutting up the present rotten system. Walk into them, friend Horace, and they will toe the mark yet!

Speaking of Military affairs, your Mr. STEVENSON (Col. Jonathan D.) introduced to day a long law relative to the Infantry of your City. I had but a moment's time to plance at its provisions. He proposes to give the officers of your Infantry the same exemptions and privileges that are now enjoyed by exemptions and privileges that are now enjoyed by those of the Artillery. The Infantry (privates) are to assemble, without arms or equipments, once a year, between the 15th and 31st of October, each to rear, between the 15th and 31st of October, each to be subject to a fine of 850 for non-attendance, provided be were personally notified. The officers, commissioned and non-commissioned, to meet for drill eight times a year, fully anxied and uniformed Penalty 850 for non-attendance at each drill. Officers of Courts Martial (except Judge Advocates) to receive no pay for attendance, except that their actual expenses are to be paid out of the Treasury of the Brigade. Such are the main features of Co. Stivenson's Bill.

He also introduced a Bill in relation to Usury, which provides that no contract &c. shall be declared void for usury, but judgment shall be given for the amount of the principal (cases of Bottomry and Respondentia to be excepted). No fines or impresonment in case of taking usury. The rate of legal interest to be reduced to six per cent.

The License Bill of Mr. Harris, which extends the require of the existing Law to your City, was the provision of the existing Law to your City, was sent directly to a Committee of the Whole, and will receive early discussion and action, whether favorable or not. I cannot pretend to guess. The case of the Contested Election in Dutchess, has been adjourned by the Committee until the 24th to enable the parties to procure and present cleties is strongly favorable to the application of the Baptists, unless I much mistake its complexion.—We shall have the Bible Controversy over again. Shame on both parties that they cannot meet and compromise as brethren.

The Assembly is at sea on an Anti-Rent discussion, and nothing but the "P. Q." will bring land in sight. HARRIS made a noble Speech on Saturday, which will do much good in disabusing the day, which will do much good in disadousing the public on this question. There is a wonderful anxiety wrinced to give the Anti-Henters all they ask.—
If Col. Wees will only come here in person, or open the batteries of his paper against the project, it will go through like lightning! Can't you stir him up to try his hand?

The Senate have already fixed the 17th of the senate have already fixed the 17th of the day of adjustment. There will be March as the day of adjournment. There will be a short Session, as every body is looking to the Convention.

Yours, &c.

Mr. Smith claimed to be opposed—atterly opposed, to all resistance to the laws. He was not only opposed to them in the counties of Schoharie and Delaware, but to armed expeditions Schoharie and Deisware, but to armed expenditions got up in Tammany Hall or elsewhere to aid the Dorr insurrection. He was opposed to resistance to law in every form, whether it came in the shape of Nullification, Dorrism or Indian Outrages.

Mr. S. would go farther back in his inquiry as to the origin of these disturbances, than the movements of the series of the of the Anti-Renters. He would go to the seat of Government, and trace it to Nullification, followed Government, and trace it to Stuffickers, up by Repudiation, violation of Treaty obligations, and the Dorr insurrection. Gentlemen came here to talk about law and order with pusans to Dorrism yet warm upon their lips! It did not sound well. Mr S. also referred to the charges made against Gov. Sew and and he read an extract from his message in Such are the main features of Col. to show the identity of the recommendations of each. If we could not approach these leases directly, we could indirectly, by taxing the rents, and thus induce the owners to sell out their and thus induce the owners to sen out their lands. It had been charged upon the gentleman from Albany, that because he had last year produced and read one of these leases, he had endeavored to create excitement. What then should be said of Gov. Wright, who had characterized these leases as odicus He (Mr. S.) was happy to hear from the gentleman from Putnam, that he was prepared to go all lengths with the gentleman from Alhany. If he was prepared to come upon the Anti-Rent platform, however, he (Mr. S.) would insist that he should first wash his hands clear from Nullification and Dorrism, and Repudiation. The day of outrages has passed. The tenants would not ap-peal to the bayonet and cartridge box, but to those peal to the bayoner and carturing cook out those ittle bullets called ballots. He apprehended that it was not so much the troubles in Delaware, and the murder of Steele that had started the Governor from his propriety as the 7.000 majority which had been rolled up in this old Third Senate District. The Governor was shrewd enough to see when he had got upon the wrong track, as was evidenced by his course upon the Texas question.

Mr. Smith had not concluded his speech when the House adjourned.

At Boston Old Colony Railroad stock has fallen since the Fall River independent line of entrance was started and a prospect of new stock to build the extension toward Cape Cod. Higher rates are offered for Central. Some factory stocks appear to advance. Merrimac would sell at 38 per cent. advance, a rise of six per cent. since November, and is rather scarce at any thing under 40. Lawrence is worth 15, and Salisbury 25 per cent. advance. Albany Bonds have been rather pressed upon the market and run down to 44 per cent. advance. U. S. 5 and 6 per cent.
